TWO MAYORS AND FRENCH LIEUTENANT MAKE TALKS

Pythians Pave Way to Boost Liberty Bond Sales and Raise Chattanooga's Quota.

One of the most enthusiastic and inspirationally liberty bond meetings yet held in Chattanooga was that of Crescent lodge, Knights of Pythias, last night in North Chattanooga, when, after addresses by Mayor Littleton, of this city, Mayor Voigt of the suburb and Lieut. Michel, of the French army, over $5,000 was subscribed for liberty bonds within ten minutes.
It was an open meeting of the lodge and quite a number of those present were invited visitors. While the attendance was cut down by the rain, those who braved the elements were well repaid by the stirring addresses and the spectacle of patriotic endeavor for the national good.
James H. Anderson was the presiding officer. After the audience had sung "America," Mr. Anderson presented Mayor Littleton, who spoke with his usual force and eloquence in behalf of the liberty loan. The mayor declared that with party lines obliterated, all Americans must be united; that there was no middle ground in the great issue of world democracy, and that every American now was either for the land of the free and the home of the brave, or the land of the Hun and the home of the knave. "Every man at home who falls to do his full duty," he said, "is as much a traitor as the man who goes to the front and deserts camp tonight." Much applause greeted this statement.

Mayor J. Read Voigt followed with a rousing speech for the liberty loan, incidentally calling on all Americans to crush out any remnant of kaiserism remaining in this country. The destruction of ships and factories here, the fomenting of strikes and various disturbances in America, he said, usually had proven to be the work of German agents.

"When you find one of these snakes," said Mayor Voigt, "don't lynch him; care of him."

He spoke feelingly of the boys we had seen leave their homes here, our neighbor boys, who are now offering up their lives for our safety and for the defense of world liberty on the bloody fields of France; and called for an outpouring of all our possessions if necessary to provide them with guns and food.

Lieut. Michel, of the French army, who has been several times wounded but who hopes to return to his place in the battle lines before a great while, was given an enthusiastic welcome.
Although only a short time ago he could not speak a word of English, he has mastered the language sufficiently to make a very effective address. He was given the closest attention and his remarks received frequent outbursts of applause.

At the close of his talk, W. P. Hays was appointed to have charge of the meeting. He and a committee distributed blanks through the audience and in a short time it was announced that more than $5,000 had been subscribed.
Crescent lodge is doing its bit, as was evident from the enthusiastic response at this meeting and also from a report of the lodge's activities in general war work. The lodge has adopted four French orphans and is supporting them. Ten per cent. of the lodge's entire membership is now in army or navy service.

With the mayor at the meeting last night was his daughter, Miss Jessica Littleton, who aided the evening's activities by taking a bond, in addition to those for which she had already subscribed.

Military Police Becomes Permanent Organization

The Oglethorpe military police, which has been formed of detached companies, has been organized into two permanent companies—A and B—of the Sixth division. When Camp Greeneleaf takes over the whole of Chickamauga these two military police companies will be removed with the Sixth and a medical provost will assume their duties and occupy their quarters.

AFTER DESERTING TWICE LEFFEW IS AGAIN CAPTURED

Harriman, April 26.—Jesse Leffew, who deserted from the army twice, has again been captured and taken to camp.
The first time he left without leave he drifted to Indiana and becoming penitent and ashamed, surrendered and went back to camp. The second time he was captured in Mississippi and is now in the military prison awaiting trial.

BARON RHONDDA RESIGNS AS BRITISH FOOD COMMISSIONER

London, April 26.—Baron Rhondda, the Daily Mail says it understands, has resigned the office of British food controller which he has held for the past ten months. He has been absent from his post for some weeks, owing to illness. John R. Clynes, parliamentar-been in charge temporarily.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "Tiz."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tormented feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath.
Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious—Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.
There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.
Get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait.
Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—

PATRIOTIC MESSAGE TO SUNDAY SCHOOL

Col. C. C. Pierce Urges Children to Buy Liberty Bonds and Help Win the War.

Lieut. Col. Claude C. Pierce, who is in charge of extra cantonment sanitation at Camp Pike, Ark., has written a letter to the Central Baptist Bible school of which he was formerly a member. The letter, an eloquent and intensely patriotic message, will be read Sunday morning by D. A.
Landress, superintendent of the Bible school. Lieut. Col. Pierce, a son of Mrs. A. M. Palmer, of Chattanooga, joined the army during the Spanish-American war as an assistant surgeon. He directed the cleaning up of the canal zone.

His letter follows:
"The soldiers are being cared for by our government in a remarkable manner. Their physical welfare and health are better safeguarded than at home. The moral phase is given prominence by the removal of vice conditions from camp vicinities and the insistence upon absolute avoidance of alcohol in all forms so that no one need worry about the soldiers and sailors."

"But patriotic and conscientious Americans at this time should feel that he have an important part to play in the winning of the war to make the world safe for democracy and a decent place in which to live, the pursuit of civilization, civilization and building of Christian characters, free from the blight of Prussian frightfulness."

"Remember that the soldiers on the battlefield will do their full duty, even to giving their lives, that the rest of us may live in peace. Those that remain in safety at home are the ones to provide the food, clothing, ammunition and moral backing these brave men must have to succeed. In Russia the front line did not desert the government disintegrated; it is back home where the power of resistance is developed."

"Then let every one feel his responsibility and get up some enthusiasm to do everything the government asks. Buy liberty bonds and war savings stamps. Help in the Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. work.
Save food. Watch out for insidious alien enemies and help in the suppression of them. Use your brain and brawn to help shorten the terrible war with its misery, crime, destitution and death."

Supt. Landress will also read the following poems:

IN FLANDERS FIELD.

In Flanders field the poppies blow Between the crosses, row by row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks still bravely singing fly, Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead. Short days ago We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe,
To you from falling hands we throw The torch, be yours to hold it high; If ye break faith with us who die We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

THE MEANING.

And what is the end of it all to be,
And what does it mean to you and me?

Does it mean that the strength of the mailed fist
Can reign supreme and alone exist?

Does it mean that the Truth and Love and Hope
Of the world are gone, and that men must grope
Their way through life for the sake of kings,
To whom their lives are but paltry things?

Does it mean that man was made in vain?
Does it mean that the right shall never reign?
Does it mean that a "cultured," half-mad brood Shall bend man's will to its wicked mood?

No! It means that the time of test is here
The gage is drawn and the battle near When Truth and Love and Hope must fight Against the strength of unhallowed might!

It means that envy and wrong and hate,
And the vicious things of a kingly state,
And the mailed fist and the "kultured" king
Can not prevail o'er a righteous thing!

And you and I and the Truth will win,
And the end will be that the Prince of Sin
And the withered arm and the "kultured" clan
Will yield at last to the Will of Man!
—Owen P. White.

LAUGH AND WORLD LAUGHS WITH YOU

Big Minstrel Team Will Supplement Force That Follies Promises Chattanoogaans.

If the slogan, "Laugh and the world laughs with you" be true, then the whole world will be in an uproar on the nights of Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when "The Jollies of 1918" is presented at the Lyric theater under the auspices of the Alhambra Shrine. There will be local "gags" that McIntyre and Heath, of the famous "Rain Tree" company, will test their salaries for. Wit will inundate, overflow and deluge the Lyric theater for three days; it will be a narcotic for the tired business man, mirth, merriment and festivity will reign supreme, and therefore let it be known that a ticket to "The Jollies of 1918" will be a fetish that will crown you at once to the Headquarters of Joy. The entire performance is seasoned with the paprika of delicious wit that will act as a first-class "glacé" and to give a category of all the fun-making acts which have been arranged would be next to an impossibility, but "seein' is believin'," says Jacques Orlandi (Chenilworth) (whoever he is), and therefore the committee in charge of the production wishes it well understood that the opening curtain will be at 8:20 in order to finish at 10:30 and send everyone home with their theatrical appetite satisfied to the utmost.
In the big minstrel first part are such famous entertainers as Fred Cantrell, Charles E. Watson, Clifford Johnston,

Will H. Stokes, J. U. Jones, R. G. Young, Ollie Stewart and Alex Robb, and they are to be well named when their names appear on the program under the heading "Evangelists of Joy." Among the ballad singers will be J. L. McCullough, Ismael Payne and Louis Hansberger, and with Judge McReynolds handling the important part of interlocutor the success of the minstrel portion of the production is assured.

However, these fun-makers and balladists are not the whole show, for in the second half of the "revue" is inserted several travesties that will make the very walls of the Lyric rock with laughter.
The only king to be left after all the others are dethroned is King Laughter, and in "The Jollies of 1918," as produced by the well-known Joe Breen Production company, this "monarch of merriment" will reign supreme. Then there are the girls—Oh, Boy! Never was such a "bery of bewitching beauties ever assembled as the Shrine beauty chorus, which will be the feature of the second part. In tomorrow's edition of The News will appear the names of the cast.

The Shrine are to turn over the entire proceeds of the show to a fund known as the "war activities fund." The money will be used to entertain our Chattanooga soldier boys and for war charities. Have you bought your ticket?
The sale of reserved seats will start at the box office of the Lyric at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Be there early and avoid the rush.

NEW YORK KNIGHT OF COLUMBUS ARRIVES HERE

Arthur B. Cummings of New York, secretary of a Knights of Columbus club in that city, arrived the early part of the week to enter upon his new duties as chief assistant to Neil J. Crowley, general secretary of the Knights of Columbus committee on war activities.

Work on the new buildings which this committee is erecting at Camp Forrest is progressing rapidly and plans are now under way for a big dedication ceremony in the near future.
